

A NEVER ENDING PORTUGAL TO DISCOVER

Porto, Day 1 - Arrival day

On the north bank of Douro River, the city of Porto is still one of the most impressive Portuguese cities. The riverside quarter of Ribeira is a delightful site, with its narrow streets, typical houses and picturesque lifestyle. In the city center, you can have a look at some of the most significant monuments (Stock Exchange Palace, St. Francis Church and Clérigos Church and Bell Tower) and also go to the commercial and pedestrian street of St. Catherine.

Stay at The Yeatman Hotel

Porto, Day 2

Once you reach the historical city center, considered World Heritage by UNESCO, explore the gothic Franciscan Church of São Francisco. Right next door you'll find the Stock Exchange Palace with incredible granite work and magnificent neo-Arab influences.

Stay at The Yeatman Hotel

Porto, Day 3

Today visit the Livraria Lello, considered by many as one of the most beautiful libraries in the world, where you can admire its Art Nouveau decoration. For some shopping, stop by Santa Catarina Street. In here you will be in the most famous pedestrian street of Porto; nearby is the famous Mercado do Bolhão, the most traditional market in the city. Sit and drink a coffee in “Café Majestic” the most famous Café of Porto. You will love its Belle époque architecture.

Stay at The Yeatman Hotel

Douro Valley, Day 4

Stay at The Vintage House

Private transfer from Porto to Douro Valley.
The Douro Valley with the calm waters of the river Douro is definitely one of the most spectacular areas Europe when it comes to scenery.

Douro Valley, Day 5

Explore the hidden gems of the Douro Valley; Lamego features the distinctive sanctuary of Our Lady of Remedies with its famous stairway. In Lamego, the visit to the Town Museum is highly recommended. Situated on the former Bishop's Palace, dating back from the 16th century, it contains the best collection of Belgium rugs in the country as well as the famous paintings from Grão Vasco, one of the best painters from the time of the Discoveries.

Stay at The Vintage House

Douro Valley, Day 6

In the mountains of northeast Portugal, a region of extensive olive groves and where the almond trees blossom in spring there is a tributary of the River Douro with a universally recognized name: Côa. It is well-known due to the expressive art gouged out of the rock that fills the valley river.

Stay at The Vintage House

Douro Valley, Day 7

Pinhão is considered to be the geographical center of the Douro. Worthy of particular attention here is the railway station, built at the end of the nineteenth century, the inside of which is entirely lined with panels of "azulejos".

Stay at The Vintage House

Évora, Day 8

Stay at Convento do Espinheiro

Private transfer from Douro Valley to Évora. As soon as you enter in Alentejo, you'll notice the wonderful diversity that exists in this small country. The landscape here becomes warm and serene, with long fields cultivated with cereals. This area of Portugal is famous for its local cuisine, castles, Roman ruins, olive oil, marble and much more.

Évora, Day 9

The stunningly situated village of Monsaraz is one of the most ancient settlements South of Lisbon with valuable and beautiful monuments, built on schist painted in bright white buildings. With its narrow streets, churches, and castle, strolling within the village makes for a truly very unique experience.

Stay at Convento do Espinheiro

Évora, Day 10

Stay at Convento do Espinheiro

Hot-Air Balloon in Alentejo.

This is an experience that combines adrenaline and serenity: besides travelling at 1500 feet of altitude, we can enjoy on a calm and, peaceful way the magnificent landscape that surrounds you.

Algarve, Day 11

Private transfer from Évora to Algarve.

Spend your days in the Algarve discovering this unique region. Seize the opportunity to go to one of its numerous beaches or just enjoy the picturesque seaside towns, where the Mediterranean culture and gastronomy provide the most unforgettable experience.

Stay at Anantara Vilamoura Resort

Algarve, Day 12 - Final day

Stay at Anantara Vilamoura Resort

Take the opportunity to relax and discover the southernmost region.

The Algarve is well-known as a golfing destination and we would recommend playing a round or two in one of the numerous world-class golf courses. Enjoy the fun and lively nightlife of Algarve, visit Vilamoura!