

THE ULTIMATE ASIAN ADVENTURE

Hanoi, Vietnam, Day 1

Soak up the charm of Hanoi's past as part of a walking tour through the city's Old Quarter.

Visit the Hoa Lo Prison Museum and pay a visit to Ho Chi Minh's Mausoleum, the burial spot of the adored Vietnamese leader. In the afternoon, get your heart pumping with a sepak takraw lesson, which is a version of volleyball played in Vietnam and surrounding countries, with a rattan ball and feet instead of hands.

Hanoi, Vietnam, Day 2

Stay at Sofitel Legend Metropole

Start off your day with a leisurely bicycle tour around the picturesque Hoan Kiem Lake.

Next up, visit the ancient Tran Quoc Pagoda, one of Vietnam's oldest temples. With a visit to the Museum of Ethnology, you will learn about the history, culture, and daily life of Vietnam's many ethnic groups.

Hanoi, Vietnam, Day 3

Gain some further insight into Vietnam's local communities with a day trip to the rural Duong Lam, an ancient village around an hour's drive from Hanoi that was the first ever to be recognised as a national relic in Vietnam. The village, over 1,200 years old, is full of ancient pagodas and curiosities. Guests can enjoy a traditional lunch with the local residents.

Halong Bay, Vietnam Day 4

Stay at Bhaya Legend Junk

Set off to see one of the world's greatest sights: Halong Bay, also a UNESCO World Heritage site (about 3 hours' drive from Hanoi).

From your own private cruising junk, get up close and personal with the limestone karsts by exploring the area by kayak. After a visit to a traditional fishing village, you'll cap your night off with a gourmet beach dinner, or dinner on board your boat, before sleeping in your own cabin.

Hue, Vietnam, Day 5

Transfer back to Hanoi and then fly down to Hue.

Start your day off with a Perfume River cruise, so-named because of sweet aroma given off by the plethora of flowers that tumble on to the river's surface. Pay tribute to the Kings of Vietnam's past at the Nguyen dynasty mausoleum, and marvel at the Imperial Citadel.

Stay at Azerai La Residence

Hoi An, Vietnam, Day 6

Stay at Four Seasons The Nam Hai

After a picturesque 3-hour drive from Hue, explore Hoi An with a bicycle tour of the ancient town. This cosmopolitan heritage is reflected in its mix of Japanese, Chinese and Vietnamese influences. Because of its rich blend of aesthetics, the entire old city is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Saigon, Vietnam, Day 7

For your first day in bustling and exciting Saigon, visit around the city to marvel at the intricate colonial architecture. The Reunification Palace and War Remnants Museum are must-sees on your sight seeing tour, as is a stop at the local markets for a bit of shopping. Enjoy a languid cruise along Southeast Asia's most vital artery, the Mekong River, stopping at local villages and markets who live their life according to the river's movements.

Krong Siem Reap, Cambodia, Day 8

Stay at Park Hyatt Siem Reap

Scheduled flight to Cambodia and private airport transfer to accommodation.

The adventure begins in the treasure of northwest Cambodia, the celebrated prelude to the coveted Angkor temples itself – Siem Reap.

Witness a sunset of profound proportion from one of the four ancient temples, the Prasat Chrung, before gliding home in your traditional Angkor gondola, where you'll be swept away by the beauty and serenity of the moment.

Krong Siem Reap, Cambodia, Day 9

Wake early for an iconic sunrise at the majestic Angkor Wat, followed by a visit to the artistically inspired Hindu temple of Banteay Srei, home to some of the most inimitable stone carvings in the world, before moving onto the equally remarkable Banteay Samre citadel and Landmine Museum for an immersive dose of fascinating history. End the day with an ATV adventure through the beauty of the Cambodian countryside beneath an enviable sunset.

Krong Siem Reap, Cambodia, Day 10

Stay at Shinta Mani Wild

Experience a truly phenomenal private helicopter journey to the ruined temples of Koh Ker, where an expert guide will fill you in on its history, followed by a lovely picnic lunch at the ruins of Beng Mealea. The evening will be spent enjoying an extraordinary performance, with VIP seats, at the Phare Circus.

Koh Kood, Thailand, Day 11

A private flight on the Cessna 8-seater will take you from Siem Reap to Trat, Thailand, where you will then board another plane for a 20-minute flight to Soneva Kiri. After checking in to the hotel, the rest of the day is left in your hands. Conclude the evening at the Cinema Paradiso; an open-air theatre that gifts you with the chance to watch classic movies under a star-strewn sky, while nibbling delicious treats or sipping on specially made drinks.

Stay at Soneva Kiri

Koh Kood, Thailand, Day 12 - Final day

Stay at Soneva Kiri

Today you seek adventure out on the water with the snorkel trip: jump aboard the speedboat for a thrilling sea safari to Koh Kradan Island! For lunch visit the Mushroom Cave, for a dining experience like no other - you'll be amazed at the many ways mushrooms can be prepared and enjoyed. At last, discover the alluring Klong Chao waterfall.

Koh Kood, Thailand, Day 13 - Final Day

Today take advantage of the many activities provided by Soneva Kiri resort. The on-site spa offers an incredible selection of wellness rituals, from traditional Asian healing therapies to any kind of massage you could desire. Get pampered, and then watch the sweeping sunset from the resort's private white-sand beach, followed by an incomparable meal, where you'll eat amidst the soaring heights of one of the Tree-pod dining tables in the stunning rainforest.
